PRESS RELEASE

Kessler Rehabilitation Center Gives Back to U.S. Service Members with a Generous Donation to The Armed Forces Foundation

Donated Charity Golf Tournament Proceeds Used to Benefit Returning Military Service Men and Women

WASHINGTON, DC / December 19, 2008 – As a part of its efforts to play a positive role in the lives of our military community, Kessler Rehabilitation Center established “Operation Armed Foursome” to raise money in order to help injured service members and their families. The program consisted of a charity golf tournament in which three golfers sponsored a military member as part of their foursome. Kessler Rehabilitation selected one of New Jersey’s premier venues, Trump National – Colts Neck as the site for the inaugural outing. By all measures “Operation Armed Foursome” was a huge success. The Armed Forces Foundation was selected as one of the recipients of the proceeds from the Kessler Golf Classic fundraiser. On Tuesday December 16, 2008 Bill Anastassatos, the President of Kessler Ambulatory Services, presented a check for $20,000 to the Executive Director of the Armed Forces Foundation, Ms. Patricia Driscoll.

In the upcoming year and beyond the Armed Forces Foundation will be focusing more and more of its attention on the issues of Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). These issues have been and will continue to be a critical issue facing our veterans returning home from the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. The Armed Forces Foundation is a leader in calling attention to this critical issue and providing services and assistance to those suffering from TBI and PTSD. Kessler Rehabilitation Center’s generous donation will help provide the Armed Forces Foundation with the resources needed to achieve its goals for 2009 and beyond.
